

Regrading of Lab Reports 1, 2, and 3

You may resubmit your lab reports for the first three labs assignments for regarding. In order to qualify for the regrading you should submit the original lab report, with our comments and feedback written on it, along with the revised version you have prepared. We will grade the new report and adjust your grade on the assignment appropriately.

All resubmissions must be turned in by Friday, 19 November 2010. Good luck and have fun.
